Top Tips

TOP TIP!

- Combine with a city trip on the way, such as Singapore
- Take cash for visa on arrival
- Have an outbound ticket booked not a one way they don't let you in without it
- Join Bali Facebook groups before you go for local knowledge and info
- For a trusted airport taxi get this from a Facebook group before you go so someone is waiting for you and you can avoid the mayhem and haggling
- Download Gojek app for scooter taxis so you don't have to ride yourself and face the traffic
- Join nomad travel WhatsApp groups if traveling alone
- Take a torch for night walking so you don't accidentally step on a snake!
- Don't touch a Balinese child on the head, it's disrespectful in their culture and they see it as bad luck
- Don't enter a religious temple with shoulders or ankles uncovered or if on your period for the ladies!
- If you want to drive a scooter always wear a helmet and make sure your insurance covers you. It usually doesn't unless you have an international driving license
- Get charcoal tablets to protect your tum from Bali belly
- If time allows, try to travel and stay in different locations to experience both beach and jungle!
